WHAT IS THE SERVICE PROJECT:

Homemade meals are so important in welcoming women to Downtown Women's Center - nothing says "home" like food made with the love of someone who cares. Volunteer-made meals make it possible for lots of fresh and healthy ingredients to be available to the women served. Plus, it's a great way for LATLC volunteers to learn about DWC and have an opportunity to get involved during a rare week-day service project.

WHO THEY ARE:

The Downtown Women's Center (DWC) is the only organization in Los Angeles focused exclusively on serving and empowering women experiencing homelessness and formerly homeless women. They envision a Los Angeles with every woman housed and on a path to personal stability. Their mission is to end homelessness for women in greater Los Angeles through housing, wellness, and advocacy.
